For the fiscal year ending March 31, 2015, the Non-GAAP net income per diluted share outlook is calculated using the "if-convertedâ method as a result of the issuances of our 1.75% Convertible Notes in November 2011 and 1.00% Convertible Notes in June 2013, and Non-GAAP diluted net income is adjusted by adding-back $7.4 million related to coupon interest and debt issuance costs, net of tax. Â For the second quarter ending September 30, 2014, the "if-convertedâ method is not used for calculating the Non-GAAP net loss per diluted share outlook as the assumed conversion would be anti-dilutive. Â Shares used to calculate the Non-GAAP net income (loss) per diluted share outlook are as follows:

|--|------------|-------------|
|  |            | Â           |
| Weighted average basic shares                  | 80 Million | 81 Million  |
| Add: Weighted average participating shares     | -          | 7 Million   |
| Add: Potential Dilution from convertible notes | -          | 26 Million  |
| Total weighted average diluted shares          | 80 Million | 114 Million |
|  |            | Â           |
|  |            | Â           |

The Company's stock-based compensation expense for the periods above includes the cost of approximately 1.8 million restricted shares previously granted to ZelnickMedia that are subject to variable accounting. Â Actual expense to be recorded in connection with these shares is dependent upon several factors, including future changes in Take-Two's stock price.

Α

Key assumptions and dependencies underlying the Company's financial outlook include: the timely delivery of the titles included in this financial outlook; continued consumer acceptance of the Xbox One and PS4; the ability to develop and publish products that capture market share for these next-generation systems while continuing to leverage opportunities on the Xbox 360, PS3 and PC; and stable foreign exchange rates. See also "Cautionary Note Regarding Forward Looking Statementsâ below.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

In addition to reporting financial results in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), the Company uses Non-GAAP measures of financial performance. The Company believes that these Non-GAAP financial measures, when taken into consideration with the corresponding GAAP financial measures, are important in gaining an understanding of the Company's ongoing business. These Non-GAAP financial measures also provide for comparative results from period to period. Therefore, the Company believes it is appropriate to exclude the following Non-GAAP items, net of applicable taxes, as discussed below:

- Net effect from deferral in net revenues and related cost of goods sold the Company defers revenue and related costs from the sale of certain titles that have undelivered elements upon the sale of the game and recognizes that revenue upon the delivery of the undelivered elements. As there is no impact to the Company's operating cash flow, management excludes the impact of deferred net revenue and related costs from its Non-GAAP financial measures when evaluating the Company's operating performance, when planning, forecasting and analyzing future periods, and when assessing the performance of its management team. In addition, we believe that these Non-GAAP financial measures provide a more timely indication of trends in our business, provide comparability with the way our business is measured by analysts, and provide consistency with industry data sources.
- Stock-based compensation â€" the Company does not consider stock-based compensation charges when evaluating business performance and management does not contemplate stock-based compensation expense in its short- and long-term operating plans. As a result, the Company has excluded such expenses from its Non-GAAP financial measures.
- Business reorganization, restructuring and related expenses â€" although the Company has incurred business reorganization expenses in the past, each charge relates to a discrete event based on a unique set of business objectives. Management does not believe these charges reflect the Company's primary business, ongoing operating results or future outlook. As such, the Company believes it is appropriate to exclude these expenses and related charges from its Non-GAAP financial measures.
- Non-cash amortization of discount on convertible notes the Company records non-cash amortization of discount on convertible notes as interest expense in addition to the interest expense already recorded for coupon payments.
  The Company excludes the non-cash portion of the interest expense from its Non-GAAP financial measures because these amounts are unrelated to its ongoing business operations.
- Loss on convertible note hedge and warrants, net the Company entered into unwind agreements with respect to its convertible note hedge and warrant transactions. As a result of the unwind agreements, these transactions were accounted for as derivatives whereby gains and losses resulting from changes in the fair value were reported as a loss on convertible note hedge and warrants, net. The Company excludes the impact of such transactions when evaluating the Company's operating performance. Management does not believe these gains and losses reflect the Company's primary business, ongoing operating results or future outlook. As such, the Company believes it is appropriate to exclude these gains and losses from its Non-GAAP financial measures.
- Non-cash tax expense for the impact of deferred tax liabilities associated with tax deductible amortization of goodwill â€" due to the nature of the adjustment as well as the expectation that it will not have any cash impact in the foreseeable future, the Company believes it is appropriate to exclude this expense from its Non-GAAP financial measures.
- Discontinued operations â€" the Company does not engage in sales of subsidiaries on a regular basis and therefore believes it is appropriate to exclude such gains (losses) from its Non-GAAP financial measures. As the Company is no longer active in its discontinued operations, it believes it is appropriate to exclude income (losses) thereon from its Non-GAAP financial measures.

These Non-GAAP financial measures are not intended to be considered in isolation from, as a substitute for, or superior to, GAAP results. These Non-GAAP financial measures may be different from similarly titled measures used by other companies.
