

Take-Two Interactive, Inc. Ships Smuggler's Run: Warzones for the Nintendo GameCube

August 12, 2002 9:02 AM ET

NEW YORK, Aug 12, 2002 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Take-Two Interactive Software, Inc. (NASDAQ: TTWO), is proud to announce that Smuggler's Run: Warzones has shipped and is currently available at retailers in North America and will be available on September 30, 2002 in Europe.

Published by Take-Two's Rockstar Games and developed by Angel Studios, Smuggler's Run: Warzones is Rockstar's first offering for the GameCube(TM) and continues the expansion of the successful Smuggler's Run franchise. Featuring five massive international environments, over 175 distinct missions, and split screen multiplayer action for up to four players, Warzones is the ultimate off-road driving experience.

"The success of the Smuggler's Run franchise has been tremendous so far. The GameCube gave us the opportunity to expand and develop the previous titles," said Dan Houser, Rockstar Games' Vice President of Creative. "The graphics enhancements, speed, and 4 player action makes Smuggler's Run one of the best driving games on the platform."

About Smuggler's Run: Warzones

In Smuggler's Run: Warzones, the player is an elite, international smuggler working in the most volatile warzones on earth. With large, expansive environments and an immersive storyline revealed through stylized full motion video cut scenes, Warzones plunges the gamer into the treacherous terrain of Vietnam, the enormous landscape of North America and the extreme conditions of Eastern Europe. Surviving the dangerous outlaw lifestyle of a smuggler continues on the GameCube this August with Smuggler's Run: Warzones.
